

Ananno Barua

Backend Software Developer

Dedicated and passionate about backend development, I aim to leverage my background in Django to contribute effectively to a dynamic team. I am eager to apply my skills to building robust and user-friendly web applications while continuously expanding my expertise in Django and related technologies. The goal of my work is to deliver high-quality code and to collaborate with experienced developers to create innovative solutions that meet the needs of users and clients.

+88015-15681669

Chittagong, Bangladesh

anannobarua@gmail.com

www.anannobarua.com

Skills

- MVC/MVT Architecture
- Experience with database MySQL
- Understanding of RESTful APIs
- Experience with version controller Git
- Knowledge about the Django packages
- Collaboration with the team members

Work Experience

2022-Present

Makeup Coders

Backend Developer (Django)

- This company has been offering me the opportunity to freelance with various teams.
- I work on the backend using Django and maintaining the database.
- I also work closely with the front-end developer to develop and improve the user interface of the website.
- Writing custom Python code to extend Django applications.

Education History

2018-2022

Premier University

Chittagong

- Bachelor Degree of Computer Science & Engineering